Dr. James Davidson provides forensic psychological services. Forensic psychology is the intersection of psychology and the law. Courts increasingly are relying upon the specialized knowledge of forensic psychologists to assist them in answering complex legal questions in criminal, civil and family court proceedings.

Dr. Davidson has specialized training in forensic psychology, and conducts comprehensive forensic psychological evaluations, provides attorney consultation, and serves as an expert witness. Dr. Davidson is accustomed to providing the Court with comprehensive, timely and accurate forensic evaluations with defensible conclusions that meet the Daubert standard. Dr. Davidson has criminal and civil court expert witness experience. He is experienced in forensic evaluations with children, adolescents and adults, as well as individuals that are mentally retarded or diagnosed with pervasive developmental disabilities.

Dr. Davidson is a member of the Association of Family and Conciliation Courts, American Psychology-Law Society, American Association on Mental Retardation, American Professional Society on the Abuse of Children, American Psychological Association and Ohio Psychological Association.

Forensic Services May Be Retained by the Court, Agency, Plaintiff or Defense. All forensic services are conducted in an impartial and objective manner. For ethical reasons, I do not deal directly with any party to a case. Forensic services may be retained by the attorney (or agency) for either party in litigation or the Court. A retainer is required for all cases except in the case of government agencies.

If you are a legal professional, Court or agency who like to inquire about retaining Dr. Davidson's professional services, please contact the office to obtain a copy of his curriculum vitae and fee structure.
